RUEL'S WAR.

It Now Looks Like a General Uprising.

WINNIPEG, April 10.—Word came from Battleford last night that the Indians of Frog lake had killed eight whites, including J. J. Jurin, the Indian agent, John Delaney, farm instructor, Mr. Goudalock and wife, Rev. Father Telford, Rev. Father Lemarchand and two men whose names are unknown. Mrs. Delaney is a prisoner. W. Jurin, a nephew of the Indian agent, escaped and made his way to Battleford on Wednesday. It looks now like a general Indian uprising.

THE MARKETS.

Another "Saw of Fretfulness."

CHICAGO, April 10.—10:15 a. m.—The wheat market presented another scene of great confusion at the opening this morning with the price 2 and 2½ cents lower. May wheat sold as low as 85½ cents at the opening. There was a strong buying later and May rose to 86½. May corn, 43½; oats, 33½; pork, 12 23½; lard, 6.95.

Lard firm; 87 May.

AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 10.—There is less excitement in the wheat market to-day, with a temper to banish fear as reflecting the war, based on more peaceful news from abroad. May wheat opened 97½, then dropped to 96½, but recovered to 97½, declined to 96.

Corn 94½ higher and fairly active; mixed western spot 51½-53½; future 51½-54½.

Oats a shade stronger, western 38½-41.

Pork steady, new mess 813 25.

Lard opened lower but later grew stronger, steam rendered 87 25.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, April 9.—It was learned late this afternoon that to-day's session of the cabinet had not been called, as had been given out, merely to prepare for this evening's opening of parliament, but the real purpose of the session was to discuss the alarming dispatches which were coming in from Sir Peter Lumsden. The first of these was received yesterday, but as it came in an incomplete state it was not acted upon. Although it was of an alarming nature action was postponed in order to get the full text. The telegram reads thus:

"A large force of Russians from Suli Khisti made a severe attack upon the Afghan outposts at Penjsh."

Mr. Gladstone, in the house of commons this evening, in answer to interrogations, said that on Saturday the cabinet had considered Russia's reply to England's proposal to limit the zone of survey to the debatable points. Russia's reply was an agreement to do this provided the zone of survey, as marked out by England, was extended southward so as to include the Parapamisan range of mountains. The government considered that this reply did not advance the question toward a conclusion and was dissatisfied with it. Within the past twenty-four hours, however, said the premier, a subsequent communication had been received from Russia and this appeared in the opinion of the government, to place the matter in a more hopeful position.

Being asked what the nature of this subsequent communication was, Mr. Gladstone said that it would be useless at present for the government to make any arrangement concerning the present negotiations about the Afghan frontier, in view of the grave occurrences just reported. Continuing, Mr. Gladstone said that it was evident the Russians had attacked the Afghans and the Afghans had in this attack been defeated, after making a gallant resistance. It was apparent also that the Russians, after the fight, had returned to their former positions, or at least to the left bank of the Kushi river, which might be equivalent to such retirement. The government had been informed, the premier went on, that the Russians had made every endeavor to induce the Afghans to begin the fighting. The Russian troops had even twice attempted to forcibly pass through the Afghan picket line.

After one of these attempts had failed to provoke an Afghan attack Captain Gates met the Russian chief of staff and talked to him about the conduct of the Russian soldiers being an evident violation of the Russian agreement to not advance, pending the outcome of the negotiations. The Russian officer stated he had no knowledge that any arrangement existed against a Russian advance, and Captain Gates referred him to the official dispatches from St. Petersburg of March 17, to London, assuring England that orders would be at once sent to the Russian officers at the front, directing them to forbid any advance and to do all in their power to prevent the provocation of a disturbance.

Mr. Gladstone, commenting on this, said that England had kept her part of this agreement up to March 30th. At least the Afghans had made no advance nor any other movement of any kind so far as information possessed by the ministers went. The government, Mr. Gladstone stated, must regard the attack by Russians upon Penjsh as unprovoked. The government had asked for an explanation of this attack from Russia but, of course, sufficient time had not yet elapsed for the receipt of an answer to its request. Sir Edward Thornton, British ambassador to St. Petersburg, had, however, last night telegraphed that M. de Giers, Russian prime minister, had expressed for himself and for the czar an earnest hope that this unhappy incident might not prevent the continuation of negotiations for peace. (This remark was greeted with shouts of derisive laughter.)

Northeast, the Tory leader, at this point arose and recalling the premier's statement first made that the government believed that after defeating the Afghans in Penjsh the Russians had retired, asked sarcastically, if it was not more reasonable to believe that after driving the Afghans out of Penjsh the Russians stayed and occupied the place.

To this Mr. Gladstone said that of course the natural inference would be that the Russians now occupy Penjsh. "Concerning this statement, however," the premier added, "some confusion exists because of the statement that the Russians occupy Penjsh emanates from a British officer, who had left the spot at the time of the fight, whilst Sir Edward Thornton reports subsequently to this that M. de Giers had stated the Russians, after attacking the Afghans, did not occupy Penjsh."

THE WAR CLOUD.

The Warring Nations Assume a Pacific Attitude.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, April 10.—Prof. Max Muller, a well known authority on political matters relating to eastern affairs, thinks in case of war the Indian troops will remain loyal, as it is almost a religious feeling that prevents them from harming one from whom they have accepted payment. So long, therefore, as England proves punctual in payment she need never fear for her native troops.

Even the most sanguine believer in peace would have been converted last night could he have heard Gladstone's martial statement in the house. All his words were distinctly threatening. The speech pleased most those who are most anxious to have the fight out now with Russia.

A BETTER FEELING.

12 m.—There is a better feeling on the stock exchange to-day. Stocks are quieter and home and foreign funds dull. Consols, 95½, receded to 94½, but recovered and are now 95½. Russian securities of 1873 are now quoted at 81½.

12:30 p. m.—The feeling continues better. Russian securities are 83.

3 p. m.—Consols, 95½.

4 p. m.—Consols, 95 11-16.

4 p. m.—The movement of consols, on the whole, has been upward and an advance of ½ was made. 95½ was the closing price.

A TIMID PAPER.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 10.—The Journal states that General Komaroff returned within his lines after driving off the Afghans, and makes the affair assume a less serious aspect. The Journal hopes the conflict will not interfere with the negotiations now in progress between England and Russia.

VERY BELLICOSE.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 10.—The morning newspapers throughout Russia, with very few exceptions, in commenting on the recent battle are very bellicose in their utterances and charge Earl Dufferin, viceroy of India, and Sir Peter Lumsden, the British commissioner, with provoking war by advising the Afghans to advance on Pulkhisi, which the British officials knew was a part of the Russian territory.

BIDDING FOR VESSELS.

LONDON, April 10.—Russian agents in London have visited the offices of a number of steamship companies and made heavy bids for the purchase of their fast-going vessels. These extraordinary offers for steamers aroused the suspicions of the companies who upon inquiry became convinced that if the vessels were sold they would be used by the Russian government for war purposes and so reported the facts to the British admiralty.

NO REPLY.

It was stated at the foreign office that Russia has not yet replied to the demand of England for an explanation respecting the attack at the Kuzbass river.

RISMARCK'S OPINION.

PARIS, April 10.—The Gaulois publishes a telegram from Berlin which says: "Prince Bismarck has assured a banker that in spite of the incident at Penjsh the czar hopes to preserve peace."

THIS IS STARTLING.

LONDON, April 10.—It is reported that the queen will return to England immediately from Aix-les-Bains, France, in view of the crisis in the relations between England and Russia.

diately from Aix-les-Bains, France, in view of the crisis in the relations between England and Russia.

SIXTY THOUSAND TROOPS CALLED OUT. Sixty thousand men from the army reserves and the whole militia will be called out. The naval reserves will be used for home defense.

THE ULTIMATUM.

BOSTON, April 10.—A private cable dispatch from London says: "It is reported that the English ultimatum to Russia is, 'twenty-four hours in which to recall General Komaroff or go to war.'"

RUSSIA'S REPLY.

LONDON, April 10.—In the house of commons to-day Gladstone said a reply was received from Russia last night. This stated that Russia had already asked General Komaroff to explain his conduct in attacking the Afghans at Penjsh.

Mr. Gladstone added that Russia had not yet received General Komaroff's explanation. Sir Edward Thornton, the British ambassador at St. Petersburg, informed him also that the Russians do not occupy Penjsh, but have retired to the positions they occupied before the battle.

A WAR CONFERENCE.

LONDON, April 10.—Leading officials of the Woolwich arsenal have been summoned to the war office to attend a conference in reference to the despatch of war material to India.

AT CHICAGO.

The fact of the robbery of the ballot-box naturally caused great excitement in political circles in view of the recent exposure of the Eighteenth ward frauds. Detectives have been upon the case all day and the following facts appear to have been disclosed:

The police to-night arrested at the stockyards, a saloon keeper and a rough character known as "Dutchy" Keefe and he has been identified by the hack driver as the man who carried away the boxes. The driver says, Keefe, rode in his hack to Forty second street, near Halstead, where he got out with the boxes, telling him (the hackman) to drive on to Halstead; that he did so, and that Keefe returned in about ten minutes without the boxes. Warrants are also out for the arrest of Pat Condon, a Westside saloon keeper and for an unnamed person, whose description answers to that of "Bob" Sheridan, who has been implicated in various criminal cases.

General Passenger Agents Meeting.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

ST. LOUIS, April 9.—An adjourned meeting of the general passenger and ticket agents of the central belt roads was held here to-day to hear the report of the committee appointed at the previous meeting to prepare or suggest a plan under which rate cutting could be stopped. The committee submitted a plan, which was freely discussed at the two sessions, and after some modification adopted, though the concurrence of some roads is not represented at the meeting is necessary before it can be put into active effect. The plan proposes to govern the sale of the tickets by the imposition of a fine of $50 on any ticket agent found cutting rates and his prompt discharge for a second offense.

READING WAR NEWS.

Senator Chaffee and Dr. Newman called.

It is said the general glanced at the papers to-day to read war news headlines. General Thomas Kilby Smith, of Philadelphia, called, also Commodore and Mrs. Garrison. Dr. Douglas left the patient at 11 o'clock and again the general was without medical attendance.

HE MUST DIE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—General Dent, brother-in-law of General Grant, has returned from New York. He says the Grant family are reconciled to the fact that the general cannot recover.

The physicians permitted General Dent to see General Grant's throat by means of a reflector. He says the cancer has made greater progress than any who have not seen it can imagine. An artery in his throat must certainly give way soon and then there is nothing to prevent death. Notwithstanding all his suffering, General Grant is perfectly resigned to his fate and is prepared to die. He is as calm and self-poised to-day as he was at the battle of the wilderness.

BARRIER'S SUCCESSOR.

LA LIBERTAD VIA GALVESTON, April 10.—News confirmatory of the reported death of President Barrios continues to reach this point. The new president is General Manuel Lizandro Barrios, one of the two vice presidents or designados.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Secretary Bayard received official information from Hall, the American minister to Central America, that General Barrios, being constitutional successor, has assumed the duties as president of Guatemala.

REMOVED.

Not of a Business Firm, But of a Tape-worm, From the Stomach in a Battle.

Yesterday Miss Clara Finin, of Paynes, Ohio, was relieved of the largest tape-worm yet captured by Dr. Nichols, at the Robinson house. The monster measures eighty-three feet in length and is an unusually fine specimen. The worm can be seen, with many others, at Dr. Nichols' office. The doctor says that hundreds of persons are afflicted with these parasites who are being treated for diseases which have no real existence. Dr. Nichols undoubtedly has the best tape worm remedy in the profession.

A HELPLESS MAN HELPED.

At Greencastle, Indiana, an hour's ride from Indianapolis, lives Mr. D. L. Southard, a gentleman, well known throughout Indiana. Among other honorable positions which he holds is that of Trustee of the Indiana University. Mr. Southard is a brother-in-law of Bishop Bowman, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

For many years Mr. Southard was a martyr to rheumatism in its most afflictive form. Up to July, 1883, he was nearly helpless, and could move only with great pain. At that time Bishop Bowman, having seen how greatly the Rev. Mr. Keely, of Indianapolis, had been relieved by the new remedy, Athlophore, brought Mr. Southard a bottle of that medicine, and advised him to try it.

Mr. Southard's experience, resulting from his trial of Athlophore, was thus stated at a recent interview. Bishop Bowman happened to be visiting Mr. Southard at the time, and the exchange of ideas and opinions as to rheumatism and the radical remedy for it, was free and pleasant.

Said Mr. Southard: "I had for years been suffering with rheumatic pains. My arms and legs were swollen, and the pain was sharp and constant. I was unable to dress myself, or even to put on my stockings. My wife had to lift me and turn me in bed. Bishop Bowman brought me a bottle of Athlophore. I hardly dared to hope for any benefit from it, for I had taken so many medicines.

"I began to take the Athlophore first as directed. At that time I was suffering from a cold. In a few hours there was a remarkable change. I broke out into a profuse perspiration, and had a strange feeling of relief. In a few hours more all my pain was gone. I could stretch my legs and move my joints as I had not been able to for a long time. It seemed wonderful, after all my experience, that any medicine could have such effects. I feared that this was of such power that it would go to my vital parts and end my life. Knowing not what might be the result, I quietly prepared myself for the final change and calmly awaited it. But instead of putting an end to the Athlophore only put an end to the pain. What a new and delightful experience it was to be without pain!

"I gave a letter to the Athlophore concern, which was published. It brought me a great many inquiries by mail from various parts of the country. I wish I could show you some of those letters, but I was clearing out my desk the other day, and I destroyed the whole pile of them. One was from a man in Winchester, Indiana, whose wife was suffering agony. I directed him where to get the medicine and it soon made her well. The wife of Prof. Golin, of the University, was suffering with rheumatism, and Athlophore cured her, as well as a good many others.

"At times I would have return of my rheumatism, but nothing like that I formerly had. Each attack was lighter. Each time I fought it with Athlophore, and got the better of it. Now I have for a year enjoyed good health and freedom from pain. I took in all ten or twelve bottles of the medicine, and if I were again to be attacked by rheumatism would take more.

Bishop Bowman, on being asked, "was the relief which Mr. Southard experienced more than you had expected?" replied: "Certainly it was, for I had not expected anything. I brought him the Athlophore because I had seen that it had done so much good to Mr. Keely and others in Indianapolis. It seemed a last resort, for Mr. Southard's case was such a severe one that I had little or no hope of even giving him relief. But seeing the completeness of his cure I have recommended the medicine to others. I have not had occasion to use it myself, for I have not had rheumatism and am in excellent health. Of all those to whom I have recommended it I have heard of only one instance in which decided benefit was not gained. I consider Athlophore a wonderful medicine."

If you cannot get Athlophore of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—five dollars per bottle. No return if you do not like it, but if it does not cure you, we will refund your money. Write to Dr. J. C. Allen, 115 Wall Street, New York.

PRIMARY NOMINATIONS will please.

The secretary of the navy has ordered an inventory of government property at the various navy yards.

Wild geese are flying northward, and the organ grinder has come again. They are indications of spring, coming picnics and the dude fever.

Prominent fashionable hatters say there will not be much change in the style of hats this season. Old hats, then, will be fashionable we suppose.

Mrs. GEORGE H. PENDLETON was Alice Key, a daughter of Francis Scott Key, the author of the "Star Spangled Banner," and a niece of Chief Justice Taney.

During the first month of his administration Postmaster General Vilas commissioned 450 postmasters. During the same period 100 presidential postmasters were appointed.

The city central committee submitted to the democratic voters an important trust—the nomination of candidates—and the people must appreciate and guard the system.

Governor GRAY yesterday approved a bill to prohibit the importation or immigration of aliens and others under contract or agreement to perform labor within the state of Indiana.

A FELLOW, claiming to have been sent out by the pension bureau at Washington to furnish medicine for sick soldiers, at $5 a quart—one-half in hand and the balance when he calls for it—is said to be traveling this country. Of course he is a fraud and his medicine a humbug. Kick him out.

COCAINE, the latest discovered annihilator of pain, and which is frequently used in alleviating the sufferings of General Grant, is made from the salts obtained from the leaves of the coca tree, six months ago sold for $4,000 a pound. At that time it was manufactured in Germany alone, but now there are factories in New York, Boston and Philadelphia and the price has fallen to $3,000 a pound.

A Washington telegram says that the members of the Indiana supreme court are causing considerable comment by their indiscriminate endorsement of every candidate for position. An old Indiana member remarked that they had made their signatures very common in the departments there. That nearly everywhere he went and asked who was endorsing the Indiana candidates for place, he was almost invariably answered: "Well, the supreme court and some others. I'll have to look for the others, but I know the supreme court heads the list."

The new attorney general, Garland, is a total abstainer from stimulants. He was asked one day how it happened that he, coming as he did from a part of the country where liquor was believed to be used as commonly as coffee, was a teetotaler. He replied: "Well, it was this way: I used to drink as regularly and as cheaply as any one, but one day some years ago I was walking through our cemetery at Little Rock, and I saw the grave of one very bright man who would have been my age, and then I saw another, and another, until I suddenly realized that almost all the young men with whom I began life had died. I alone was left, and I knew what had carried them away. Well, as I had been spared, it occurred to me that I had certainly had my share of alcohol, so I made up my mind that I wouldn't drink anybody else's share, that wouldn't be fair. So I just stopped right then and there."

THE PEOPLE SHALL DECIDE. Last evening the city democratic central committee met and decided to do away with the delegate convention system and try the primary election plan. No one but democrats will be allowed to vote. It gives members of their own party a privilege to assist in making the nominations. No wire-pulling or jobs can be fitted up. Every candidate will have to stand on an equal footing before the people. If he is competent for the office he seeks, no one knows it better than the rank and file of the party. If he is not competent, who would be a better judge than the people? Under this plan unworthy and incompetent parties are seldom nominated. If the people turn out and take an interest in the primary, we feel assured that none but good men will receive their endorsement. If they fail to exercise this privilege and a poor ticket is nominated they are responsible. The candidate receiving the most votes is the nominee. Any democrat has a proper right and privilege to be a candidate if he desires. All are on an equal footing and no one has any more privileges or rights than another. The primary election will be held on Saturday, May 2nd, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock p. m. The names of the candidates will be placed on one ticket and the voter will scratch off all but the ones he desires to vote for. If his ballot is deposited with two or more names unmarked for one office neither one will be counted, though the balance of the ticket, if properly marked, will be recorded.

Sick Headache. Thousands who have suffered intensely with sick headache say that Hood's Sarsaparilla has completely cured them. "Hood's Sarsaparilla is worth its weight in gold." A census of the population of the state of New York will be taken this year by the state authorities.

Breaking Up.

On every hand we see evidence that winter is breaking up, and will soon have to yield to the advancing spring. It is a most important question amongst scientific men what causes the general feeling of debility and lassitude so prevalent in this region. While some regard it as the result of confinement and inaction, others suppose it to be caused by the decay of vegetable and animal debris which has accumulated during the winter. What is especially needed at this time, however, is something to overcome these influences. It is too late to talk about the cause; what is the cure? Thousands of persons all over the country who have given Kidney-Wort a faithful trial are ready to testify that no other remedy is equal to it for cleansing the system, purifying the blood, regulating the bowels, and curing all kidney and liver diseases. It is in fact the king of all spring medicines.

The Girard and Vokes, bicycle and roller skating celebrities, will give an exhibition at the Princess skating rink Tuesday evening next. These people are the finest in the land, and the popular rink can hardly expect to hold the visitors.

The funeral of Chief Dispatcher Frank Deffenbach, which occurs to-day at Lafayette, will be attended by all the operators on this division who can be spared from duty. A. McNeff, day operator at this place, left here on train 45 this morning to act as one of the pall bearers.

The Nestle girl said she had taken poison and so far deluded the sheriff that he hastened a physician to the scene. After a little she got up and said she guessed it wouldn't work. The Slagle woman feigned illness and wanted to go to the hospital.

Last Wednesday evening a pleasant birthday party was given at the residence of Mr. A. C. Trentman, the occasion being the fourteenth birthday anniversary of his daughter, Miss May.

E. K. Bush, of 74 Douglas avenue, one of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago's best firemen, is very sick, at his home. We trust that the railroad boys will see that he does not suffer for the want of care and attention.

The "bucket shop" or grain exchange, at the Center house, on Main street, is closed. The local managers received notice from Chicago to shut up shop this morning. The exchange lost heavily here yesterday, but the excitement on the Chicago exchange is probably the immediate cause of the closing.

The officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad company and its many attaches celebrated at New York last night the success of the new fast schedule. The train west and east have been on time in every instance. The train via the Panhandle route, which leaves New York at 9 a. m., arrives in Cincinnati at 10:30 a. m. of the next day, and in St. Louis at 7:30 p. m. The fast line via the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway, which leaves New York at 9 a. m., arrives in Chicago at 6 p. m. of the following day. The time over the Pennsylvania railroad was declared to be the fastest made by any railroad in the world.

It will be remembered that some time ago THE SENTINEL gave the particulars of the arrest of John Sneypp, of Bourbon, Marshall county, for swindling farmers on a "proof paint" racket. Of him yesterday's Golden News says: "Yesterday afternoon John Sneypp, the roof paint swindler, secured bail in the sum of $300, friends from Bourbon going on his bond. Sneypp was taken to Fort Wayne, where he will be tried in the Allen circuit court for swindling farmers on the same plan. It was transparent that there are a great many farmers in this county who were swindled by this man Sneypp, who paid him sums of money all the way from $25 to $50 to compromise the matter. A farmer living near Nappanee, who paid him $30 "to compromise," was haunting around yesterday to manage to have Sneypp held here on another warrant, but he was not fast enough and Sneypp left on the evening train."

FIXED BY FORD.

F. M. Caldwell Appointed District Passenger Agent at Fort Wayne and Charles L. Kimball Placed in Charge of Fort Wayne, Cleveland and Toledo.

E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, announced the following changes for the passenger department of the lines under his jurisdiction: C. W. Adams, at present assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania company, Fort Wayne route, at Chicago, also assumes the same position for the Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg railroad, Panhandle route, in place of Frank Van Dusen, recently transferred to Cincinnati. Caldwell, transferred and appointed district passenger agent at Fort Wayne. Ind. F. O. Field, at present Panhandle ticket agent at Chicago, is made city ticket agent at Columbus, Ohio, in place of Mr. Mandel, resigned. Charles L. Kimball, at present district passenger agent of the Pennsylvania company at Cleveland, Ohio, is promoted to be assistant general passenger agent, and placed in charge of the Cleveland, Toledo and Fort Wayne district passenger agencies, which are to be consolidated, with the office at Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Dawson, present district passenger agent at Toledo, has resigned. James M. Greaves, at present city ticket agent at Indianapolis, becomes traveling passenger agent for the Pennsylvania lines in the northwest, with headquarters at Minneapolis, Minn., vice D. L. Roberts, transferred. George Reck, now acting as assistant ticket agent at Indianapolis, is promoted to be city ticket agent in place of Greaves, transferred. No changes will be made on the Vandalia line, J. M. Chesbrough remaining as Mr. Ford's assistant at St. Louis.

The Appomattox Celebration.

The Masonic Temple probably never held a larger audience than that which assembled last evening to join with Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., in celebrating the anniversary of the battle of Appomattox. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. T. J. Baehrer. The address by Col. R. S. Robertson was an able effort in which he vividly depicted the scenes in Washington when the news of the victory of Appomattox and the close of the rebellion were received. The colonel also touchingly spoke of the sad tragedy which occurred a few days subsequent and paid a tribute to the martyred president. His closing words, "Thank God for peace; pray God that war may never come again," was echoed by every heart. On behalf of Mrs. Dr. Youngs Capt. F. F. Boltz presented the badge of the several army corps, to which the post commander replied in a brief address, accepting the presents and thanking the donor in the name of the post. The recitations of Whittier's war poems, "Co. K." and "Barbara Fritchie," by Dr. H. V. Swearingen, were loudly applauded. The colored troops were represented by John Ridley, who in an off-hand, witty manner related his experience as a soldier and kept the audience convulsed with laughter. The exercises were interspersed with music by the glee club and solos by Miss Ida Kellogg and Myron Downing. After the presentation of the insignia of his rank to Post Commander Tom Sullivan, the exercises closed by singing "America," in which the audience united.

Madame Aimee to-night.

Madame Aimee, the French soubrette, appears at the Temple in "Mam'zelle" to-night. The St. Louis Chronicle says: "A hearty reception was given Aimee last evening upon her first appearance here in her English play 'Mam'zelle.' Her tour so far has been most successful and without doubt she will have a prosperous week. The play, while not specially novel, furnishes the charming French soubrette with a part that captivates the audience from the beginning. Then she intersperses her matchless songs, making altogether one of the most interesting and pleasing entertainment of the year. 'Pretty as a Picture,' gained the usual encores. One of the attractions of the evening occurs in the second act where the members of the company mingle in the audience and appear at unexpected moments."

Important Notice.

A railroad man says that brakemen and firemen are two classes of men who should be chosen with great care, as it from them that conductors and engineers are to be developed, and since they are apprentices with the largest pay that any apprentice receives in any trade, it is not worth while to throw away the valuable instructions which they are to receive on inferior characters. Upon the brakeman a great responsibility rests. Firemen should be of a mechanical turn of mind and ambitious to become engineers. There are plenty of young men with these qualifications, and it is a waste to employ others. They make the better firemen, of course, from their hope of advancement.

Card of Thanks.

Our most sincere thanks are hereby extended to our kind friends for the deep interest they have manifested during the sickness and death of our dear mother, for the acts of kindness shown us and for the assistance rendered us in our great bereavement.

CHILDREN OF DECEASED MRS. BOYLE.

Out of a Swamp.

That is where the influence comes from which gives people in the country malarial fever and horrible ague. This influence drags its victims down into the slough of despond, and gives them awful visions of the future. Brown's Iron Bitters is the grand tonic which builds up the forlorn system, and raises suffering victims of malaria to the highest enjoyment of complete health. It cures liver complaint and corrects all kidney troubles.

New Millinery Goods.

As the spring season is now on hand and new goods are expected in all the stores, I find it impossible to close out the stock of notions and millinery goods at Pierr's old stand at present. I therefore have given orders to Miss Rose Pierr to go to Chicago and lay in an elegant line of new millinery goods and fine notions, which I am now receiving, and invite the ladies in particular to call and see the new spring styles.
